

BLACKPEPPER

COMME des GARÇONS
*

BLACKPEPPER is an electric collision of molecules: the crash of spicy pepper seeds suspended within infinite darkness.

A powerful subversion of olfactive convention.
An incessant investigation of the perpetually unknown.

A MODERN ENIGMA

A revolution of perfume's linear narrative, there is a permanent depth to its character; no dissolution of its darkness, no recession from intensity.

Encased within an amorphous, tactile flask of mesmerizing midnight gloss, its form is as captivating as its fragrance.

Charged with ceaseless magnetism, BLACKPEPPER is a modern enigma: the luxurious scent of an endless abyss.

DECODING SPICE

Warm, dry Madagascan Pepper cracks against fiery Cedarwood. Rich, fragrant Akigalawood (Patchouli, Agarwood) fuses with the caramel resin of Tonka Bean.

Precious seeds and opulent woods blend in blazing harmony, laced with a musky accord.

A profound reinvention of familiar exoticism: spice is deconstructed, destabilized, decoded.

A resonant reverberation of dynamic intensity. Spice, seen through the transformative gaze of Comme des Garçons.
